(b) The Central Government views the naxalite menace as a matter of serious concern. The Government has been pursuing a multipronged approach to address the problem on political, security and development fronts in a coordinated manner. The Central Government has taken specific measures to coordinate and supplement the efforts and resources of the naxal affected States on both security and development fronts to meet the challenge posed by the naxal problem.

Killings of SCs/STs

†1726. SHRI PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of cases registered during the last six months in the Union Territories and in the other parts of the country in regard to the murders of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes people;

(b) the number of criminals caught out of said cases and number of criminals punished by the courts; and

(c) whether there has been an increase in the cases of murders of persons of these categories?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) to (c) As per the seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India, 'Police' and 'Public Order' are state subjects and, as such, prevention, detection, registration, investigation and prosecution of crimes are primarily the responsibilities of the State Governments.

National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) collects crime statistics from States and Union Territories and compiles them on annual basis. Further, it collects provisional figures on monthly basis. The complete data for the last 6 months are yet to be received by NCRB from the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. A Statement showing
